Round 1 votes

Andreas Melhede:	heart (for health care)	A butterfly with one wing Illustrated with microchip lines representing data and the other wing representing life with the butterfly itself, and the butterfly is similar to the horizontal eight standing for longevity.	An atom representing both scientific discovery and the coordination of autonomous entities. The with a nucleus representing the DAO and the orbiting electrons would be all the partners integrating with the platform.	A brain with lots of data going into it to represent a global AI platform for optimizing human health	A sideways beaker like a C (for CureDAO) to represent our mission to create 7 billion citizen scientists.	A microchip with lots of lines going into it to represent a global AI platform for optimizing human health	A C and I shaped li a pill
